meet.js Summit 2019

The meet.js Summit is an annual conference of the largest thriving JavaScript communities in Poland. It is an event that gathers over 500 web development professionals, front-end and back-end software engineers interested in modern JavaScript ecosystem and web technologies. This year we are meeting for the 7th time.

The next meet.js Summit will take place on September 30, 2019, in International Congress Centre in Katowice, named the best congress facility in Poland at the 2015 Meeting Planner Power Awards.

what is meet.js?

Our community hosts events - meetups and workshops in the major business hubs in the country (i.a. Gdańsk, Warszawa, Łódź, Kraków, Poznań, Katowice, Szczecin, Lublin, Białystok, Toruń, Olsztyn, Bielsko-Biała or Wrocław).

Once a year, the meet.js community gathers in one of those cities on an event called meet.js Summit. Tickets sell out within minutes.

At the conference you will meet experienced developers and people fascinated by modern web technologies who constantly pursue to learn new things. They are an ideal target for your recruitment or a dream customer of your product.

There are many case studies showing that attendees are keen to look for new opportunities and often change their jobs after attending a conference. They are also more motivated to take on new challenges in their careers.
